SHOPPING THE LAJES FIELD EXCHANGE PAYS DIVIDENDS

Lajes Field, Azores – The Lajes Exchange is paying dividends in more ways than one as Airmen exercising their benefit by shopping on Base last year generated a dividend of $347,860. These funds are critical to Air Force Service's ability to enhance local programs and facilities including the pool, gym, library and other FSS sponsored locations and activities. “The Exchange’s dual mission is to provide goods and services at competitively low prices and generate earnings to support Services programs,” said the Lajes Exchange’s General Manager, David Clore. “As a result, the dollars that customers use to shop the Exchange generates a healthy return by directly improving Air Force quality of life efforts.”

This dual benefit goes far beyond clothes, electronics or consumables. In fact, worldwide purchases made in the past 10 years have provided more than $2.4 billion to military morale, welfare and recreation programs such as Youth Services, post functions and aquatic centers. Historically, roughly two-thirds of Exchange earnings are paid to quality of life programs. In addition to funding these efforts, Exchange earnings are used to build new stores or renovate existing facilities without expense to the Federal government. Funds to contract these new or replacement facilities also come entirely from sales of merchandise and services.
