WEEKLY MOVIE REVIEW

OCEANS

Pierce Brosnan – Narrator

Disneynature, the studio that presented the record-breaking film “Earth,” brings OCEANS to the big screen on Earth Day, 2010. Nearly three-quarters of the Earth’s surface is covered by water and OCEANS boldly chronicles the mysteries that lie beneath. Directors Jacques Perrin and Jacques Cluzaud dive deep into the very waters that sustain all of mankind—exploring the playful splendor and the harsh reality of the weird and wonderful creatures that live within. Featuring spectacular never-before-seen imagery captured by the latest underwater technologies, OCEANS offers an unprecedented look beneath the sea in a powerful yet enchanting motion picture program. Rated G - 84 min

KICK-ASS

Chloe Grace Moretz, Nicolas Cage

Dave, a comic-book fanboy who decides to take his obsession as inspiration to become a real-life superhero. As any good superhero would, he chooses a new name -- Kick-Ass -- assembles a suit and mask to wear, and gets to work fighting crime. There’s only one problem standing in his way: Kick-Ass has absolutely no superpowers. His life is forever changed as he inspires a subculture of copy cats, meets up with a pair of crazed vigilantes -- including an 11-year-old sword-wielding dynamo, Hit Girl and her father, Big Daddy -- and forges a friendship with another fledgling superhero, Red Mist. But thanks to the scheming of a local mob boss Frank D’Amico, that new alliance will be put to the test. Rated R (strong brutal violence throughout, pervasive language, sexual content,
