EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY:

- Intro to Statistics

UMUC Lajes wants to remind you about a rare upcoming educational opportunity--we are offering Introduction to Statistics this term on-site at Lajes! One of UMUC's popular traveling instructors, Gordon Leitch will be coming here to teach the course. I have inserted his course syllabus at the bottom of this email.

Statistics is a vital course for Business, Management, Psychology, Accounting, Marketing, Criminal Justice, Human Resource, Social Science, Information Systems Management and Sociology majors and can fill as an exciting and useful elective as well! The

PUBLIC HEALTH HAND HYGIENE AT THE CDC:

The Public Health Flight will teach hand hygiene to the children at the CDC on 4 November @ 1330. Washing hands is the number one method of breaking the chain of infection with the flu and /or the cold. The program, headed by SSgt Albertina Walker, would help educate the public on Public Health's role in keeping Airmen and their family safe.

AFPC RETIREMENT WEBINARS:

The next scheduled webinar is designed to provide retirement-eligible members with information needed when submitting a retirement application through the virtual MPF. Other webinars have been prepared which cover issues like things to consider when contemplating retirement and pertinent items after approval. These briefings will be broadcasted on a rotating basis the second Thursday of every month. AFPC subject matter experts will be available to answer any questions. For instructions on how to log in as a guest from your office computer, contact Force Support at 535-1075.

TIMES: 1400 Local. Login for this webinar will start at 1330 Local.
